

MEET THE MONASH ARCHAEOLOGISTS

Seminar

Sunday 18 May 2008

1:00 - 5:00pm

Venue: Clemenger BBDO Auditorium,
National Gallery of Victoria
(NGV) International
180 St Kilda Road, Melbourne
Event code P0865
Telephone: +61 3 8620 2222

Philitine sarcophagi from the Punic-Roman archaeological site of Neapolis, S.W. Sardinia, Italy.

Presented in conjunction with the School of Geography & Environmental Science and Monash Asia Institute, Monash University

Archaeologists from Monash University will discuss their latest field work and research in Victoria, Papua New Guinea, Sardinia and China.

Speakers include:

Professor Jin Hai Long, Dr Ian McNiven, Dr Tim Denham, Dr Bruno David and Lucia Lancellotti.

Cost $25 Adult / $20 NGV Member / $22 Concession / $18 Student (includes afternoon tea)

This lecture is supported by National Gallery of Victoria Public Programs. It is funded through the collaboration of the Monash Asia Institute and the School of Geography and Environmental Science, Monash University.

For information on the event email:
lucia.lancellotti@arts.monash.edu.au