

'Trick or Trade: Fellowship Opportunities

7 October 2008

Dr. Jason Taliadoros
ARC Post-Doctoral Research Fellow
School of Historical Studies
Jason.Taliadoros@arts.monash.edu.au

My Career Progression

- April 2008: ARC Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, APD
 - Discovery Project: 'Sacred Rules, Secular Revelations: The Conceptions of Rights in Pre-Modern Europe'
- Early 2005 - early 2008:
 - Solicitor FT, University Solicitor's Office, Monash
 - Honorary Associate, School of Historical Studies, Monash

2

My Career Progression 2

- 2005: Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Siena College, NY (USA)
- 2004: Sessional Lecturer/Course Co-ordinator FT, University of Melbourne
- 1999 - 2003: PhD, University of Melbourne

3

My Publications/Contributions to the Discipline

- Forthcoming 2009: peer-reviewed conference proceedings paper to be published ('new work' from conference in 2006)
- Forthcoming 2008: book chapter to be published (from thesis)
- Forthcoming 2008: festschrift chapter to be published (developed from thesis)
- March 2007 book published

4

Publications/Contributions to the Discipline 2

- 2006: peer-reviewed journal article published (from conference in Nov 2004)
- 2006: conference proceedings paper published (from conference in Nov 2004)
- 1999: article in postgrad peer-reviewed journal (from Honours thesis)
- 1999-2008: international/national conferences, workshops, etc

5

Networking

- use every opportunity
- take the initiative
- international and national
- be selective

6

Networking 2

- follow-up
- face-to-face if possible
- 'Be yourself' – but a slightly more confident version!
- be realistic

7

Experience as an APD

- Freedom
- Resources to attend conferences and archives for research

- Lack of structure
- Isolating
- Uncertain status

8