There is some vital information that you will need to consider when selecting the units in one of the institutions abroad.

- a. Choose units in the area of Spanish and Latin American Cinema, Culture, Literature and/or Linguistics.
- b. Choose units where you will be studying with local students. Reject those units that are taught in English (this is specially the case for Tec de Monterrey). If you are majoring in Spanish we recommend you study in either PUC or UAM.
- c. Select units that run over more than weeks, have a continuous assessment (at least 4) and most importantly choose units that are of your interest.
- d. Reject those units where the final mark is the result of only one piece of assessment.

In our meetings we will be discussing about the best unit(s) you can take abroad. Please send us the information as soon as possible. Please note that it takes around 6-8 months to organise your studies abroad, so do not leave it until the last minute!
